

PREPARATION FOR WORKING LIFE

9

Hazard Identification

at home, on the roads and at work

Name:

What is a hazard?

If you smell gas what should you do?

Circle the correct answer

Turn out all flames	True / False
Put out cigarettes	True / False
Turn the light on	True / False
Check to see if a gas tap has been left on	True / False
Close doors and windows	True / False
Contact the Gas service	True / False

What should you do if your chip pan catches fire?

Circle the correct answer

Throw water over the pan to put out the flames	True / False
Turn off the heat	True / False
Move the pan off the heat immediately	True / False
Take the pan outside	True / False
Put a damp cloth or lid over the pan	True / False

Fire precautions at Work

Put these missing words in the correct space – Employer;
Employee

In your place of work it is the responsibility of your _____ to provide the necessary fire fighting equipment and to ensure that you, as an _____ know what to do if there is a fire.

Match up each term with its correct
Definition by drawing lines between them

Your place of work should have .....

Adequate fire escapes	fire extinguishers, fire blankets and buckets
A sufficient number of	all matters related to fire safety
Adequate fire fighting equipment such as	which are clearly labelled
One person responsible for	fire drills
Adequate and regular	fire alarms

The sign below is seen in the workplace

This sign means

A	fire risk
B	danger warning
C	chemical risk
D	poisons hazard

☐

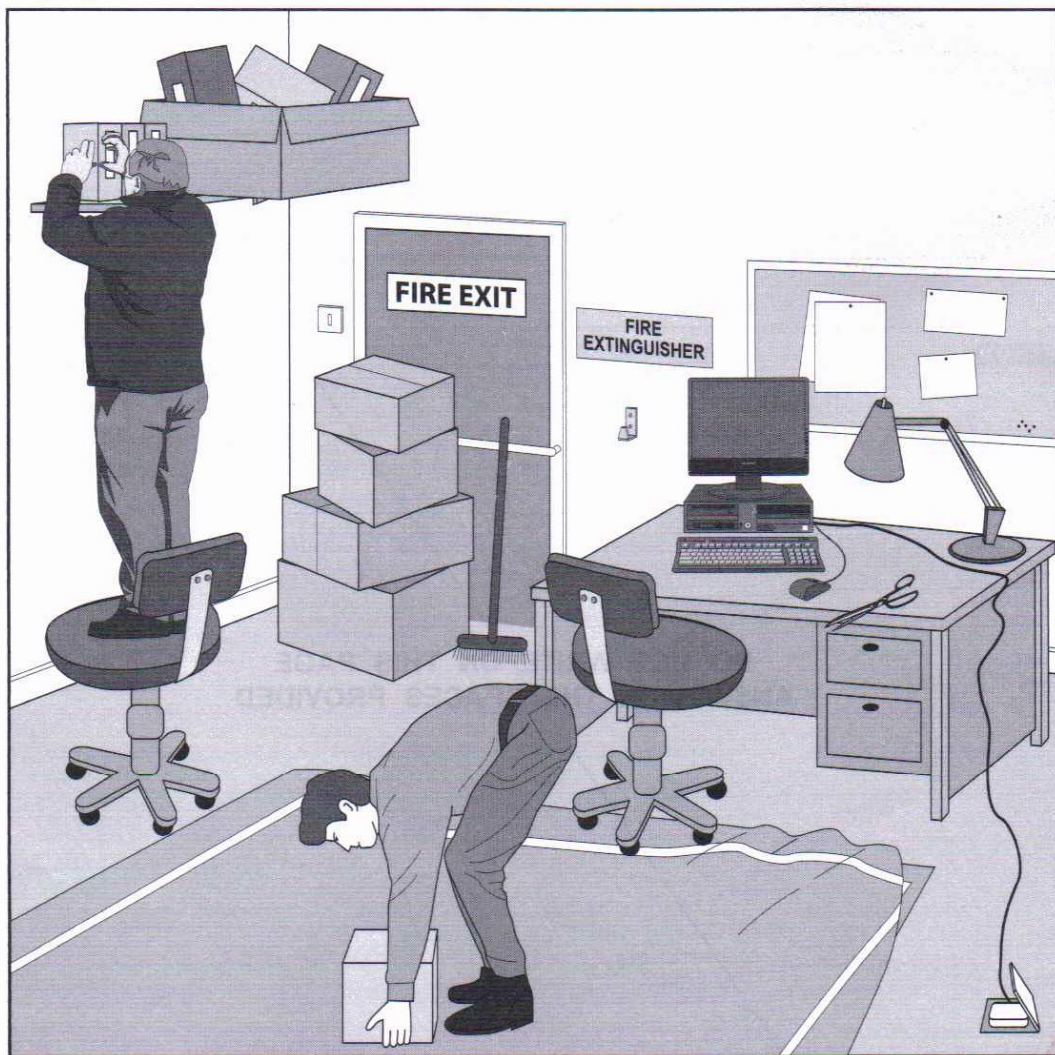

The sign below is seen in the workplace

This sign means

A	fire risk
B	radiation hazard
C	chemical danger
D	high voltage electricity

☐

The picture shows some hazards which cause risks to health and safety.

Identify six different hazards and explain why each is a risk.

One has been done to help you.

Example

Hazard: ..... The fire exit is blocked by a brush and boxes. ....

Risk: ..... The people are unable to exit quickly in the event of a fire. ....

Hazard 1 .....

Risk .....

.....

Hazard 2 .....

Risk .....

.....

Hazard 3 .....

Risk .....

.....

Hazard 4 .....

Risk .....

.....

Hazard 5 .....

Risk .....

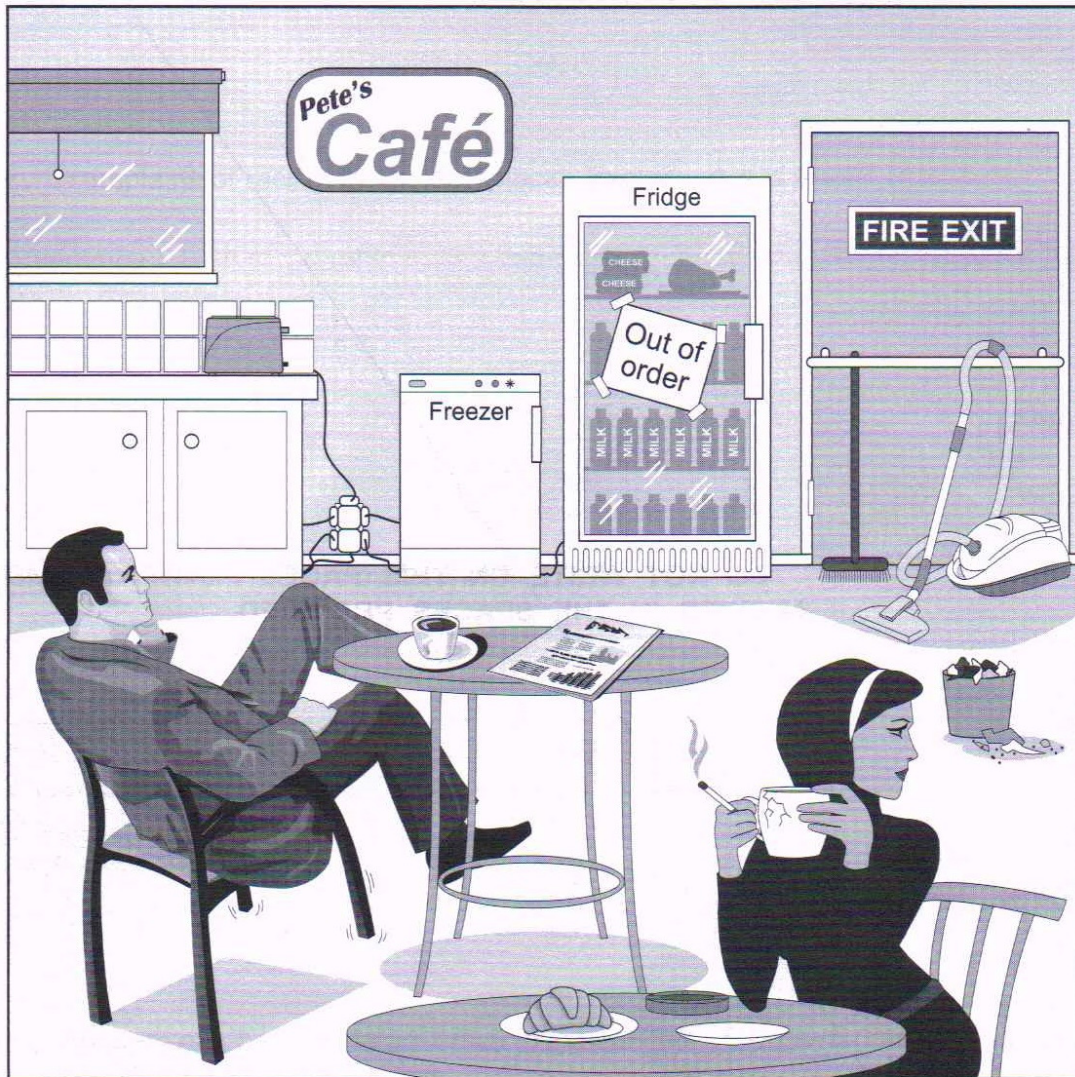

.....

Hazard 6 .....

Risk .....

.....

The picture shows some hazards which cause risks to health and safety. Identify six different hazards and explain why each is a risk. An example has been done to help you.

Example

Hazard: ..... food stored in 'out of order' fridge .....

Risk: ..... people may become ill if they eat or drink items from the fridge .....

Hazard 1 .....

Risk .....

.....

Hazard 2 .....

Risk .....

.....

Hazard 3 .....

Risk .....

.....

Hazard 4 .....

Risk .....

.....

Hazard 5 .....

Risk .....

.....

Hazard 6 .....

Risk .....

.....